

Name: Elisha M. Saldares

Subject: E.S.P

Explaining the concept of RDEL-C-RDNEB to my cousins while my sister is listening while taking pictures

The 12 Ethical Values

- January (Resiliency)
Able to adapt and prepare in times of need and make sound decision during disasters, life challenges and problems.
- February (Love)
Exemplify love of God country, oneself, neighbor and for all His creation.
- March (Hope)
Demonstrate the importance of giving hope to oneself and others.
- April (Forgiveness)
Express forgiveness to the mistake of others and understand that oneself and others are capable to commit wrong actions or decisions.
- May (Charity)
Manifest willingness to help those in need and share one's abilities for the progress and development of others and the community.
- June (Self Esteem)
Display self empowerment to influence others and respond to the needs of the community.
- July (Cleanliness)
Demonstrate protection to health by maintaining the cleanliness of the environment.
- August (Unity)
Show effort and willingness to exercise abilities to participate in home, school and community activities using acquired skills toward achieving common good.
- September (Empathy)
Express compassion for other's feelings and situations.
- October (Respect)
Exhibit respect and acceptance in words, actions, and objective view to others regardless of status in life, gender, religion, beliefs, traditions, and race.
- November (Honesty)
Tell the truth to parents and others and practice honesty in all endeavors.
- December (Obedience)
Obey the commandment of God, parents, and follow community rules.

